Feast Day Fellowship, March 23, 6 pm

A group of us is starting to come together to celebrate the Church's non-Sunday feast days. We have a quiet, spoken Eucharist in the Chapel and then gather around a festive, candle-lit table—also in the Chapel—to feast both on food and in fellowship. It is a warm, lovely, friendly way to spend an evening with All Souls' folks. Our next feast will be The Annunciation … the Angel Gabriel's message to the Virgin Mary … on Monday, March 23, at 6:00 pm. Please join us!!

Celebrating Canon Gwynn Lynch's Retirement: March 26

As you may have heard when she was with us a few weeks ago, the Rev Canon Gwynn (Freund) Lynch, Canon to the Ordinary of the diocese, will be retiring on March 31. Bishop Susan has very kindly extended the members of All Souls' an invitation to Canon Gwynn's retirement celebration on Thursday, March 26, from 5:00 – 8:00 pm, at the Episcopal Church Center in Ocean Beach (2083 Sunset Cliffs Blvd). It will be a time to give thanks for Gwynn's ministry–including her time with us as our Associate Rector! If you're able, we'd love to welcome you as we mark this special transition together.

Holy Week and Easter at All Souls'

We will gather, as usual, to commemorate and celebrate both the most solemn and the most joyous week of the Christian year. Please plan to join us … and consider asking a friend or family member to join you.

Would you like to donate flowers this Easter? Flowers may be given in honor of or in memory of friends, family, and loved ones. Please use the form in the weekly eBlast or contact the church office for more information.

Upcoming Opportunities for Baptism and Confirmation

Perhaps you're at the point in your Christian journey when you want to accept the Good News of Jesus Christ by getting baptized? Or maybe you have a child or grandchild who's ready for baptism? Perhaps you were baptized as a child and would now like to make an 'adult' confirmation of your baptism? Or maybe you were baptized in another tradition and would like to be formally received into the Episcopal Church?

Well, if so, this is the season! The Great Vigil of Easter (Sat, Apr 04, 7:00 pm) and the Feast of Pentecost (Sun, May 24, 9:00 am) are two days of the church year that are 'custom made' for baptism. And on Sunday, May 31, Bishop Susan will be visiting us, and she can both confirm and receive members then. Please speak with Fr Douglas if you'd like to learn more about any of these very special opportunities.
