

ALL SOULS'

— EPISCOPAL CHURCH —

Welcome Home. Peace Awaits.

EASTER DAY

The Feast of the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ

05 APRIL 2026
11:15 AM

A Very Warm Welcome to You!

Thank you for spending Sunday morning with us. WHOEVER you are and WHEREVER you may be on your journey of faith, you are welcome here. We're blessed by your presence, and we look forward to connecting with you. Everything you need to participate in today's liturgy is enclosed in this service booklet.

On Sundays, please join us for coffee and fellowship in the Community Building, across the plaza, or on the patio (weather permitting) after the service.

All ages are welcome; infants and children (and their accompanying noises!) enliven this service. All children are invited to the Playground at the front of the church. On Sundays at the 10:15 Eucharist, children leave the service for Children's Chapel after the Gospel lesson, and they return for Holy Communion. A rocking chair and changing table are available in the Narthex for families with little ones who may need them.

If you are visiting, please fill out a "connect" card so we can let you know of upcoming events; prayer request cards are also available. Cards may be placed in the offering plate or given to an usher. To learn more about being a member of All Souls', please speak with Father Douglas, our rector.

Restrooms are located in the hallway adjacent to Catalina Boulevard; an usher can direct you to one.

Please silence your phone to maintain a worshipful environment and as a courtesy to others.

Father Douglas is happy to talk with you about joining or participating in the life of All Souls'; questions you may have or difficulties you may be experiencing; others who may need pastoral care; or anything else on your mind. You may reach him at 619-223-6394 x 12 (office), 619-335-8168 (cell) or dworthington@allsoulspointloma.org.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All may be seated

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The FIRST READING

Acts 10:34-43

Peter began to speak to Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every people anyone who fears him and practices righteousness is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Sung by all

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for / he is good, *
his mercy en/dures for ever.
- 2 Let Israel / now proclaim, *
"His mercy en/dures for ever."
- 14 The LORD is my strength and / my song, *
and he has become / my salvation.
- 15 There is a sound of exultation and / victory *
in the tents / of the righteous:

- 16 “The right hand of the LORD has / triumphed! *
the right hand of the LORD is exalted!
the right hand of the / LORD has triumphed!”
- 17 I shall not die, but / live, *
and declare the / works of the LORD.
- 18 The LORD has punished me / sorely; *
but he did not hand me / over to death.
- 19 Open for me the gates of / righteousness; *
I will enter them; I will offer / thanks to the LORD.
- 20 “This is the gate of the / LORD; *
he who is right/eous may enter.”
- 21 I will give thanks to you, for you / answered me *
and have become / my salvation.
- 22 The same stone which the builders re/jected *
has become / the chief cornerstone.
- 23 This is the LORD’s / doing, * and it is mar/velous in our eyes.
- 24 On this day the LORD has / acted; *
we will rejoice / and be glad in it.

The SECOND READING

Colossians 3:1-4

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on the things that are above, not on the things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glo - ry to you, Lord Christ.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus's head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed, for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb, and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not touch me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord," and she told them that he had said these things to her.

The NICENE CREED

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
    he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
    he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
    and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
    he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
    in accordance with the Scriptures;
    he ascended into heaven
    and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
    and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
    and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The PRAYERS of the PEOPLE For Eastertide

Celebrant      Gracious God, you raised your Son from death to life that world may know the hope of your abiding love and ceaseless grace. Hear us as we pray this hope-of-Christ for the world.

Intercessor    Risen Christ, you fill us with the Hope of Joy: Help our hearts sing out the ALLELUIAS of Easter, in thanksgiving for salvation and the promise of eternal life at your side; that with you, we might dawn, once more, this dusk-ing world.

All                We sing out the Hope of Joy.

Risen Christ, you call us to the Hope of Vision: Help your Church be both a model of your Easter kingdom and a means for making it real; that the world may bask in your glory.

We sing out the Hope of Vision.

Risen Christ, you inspire in us the Hope of Peace: Help those in this world who pursue your peace bring to heel those who revel in violence ... glory in conquering ... and live in lies; that a vision of heaven may break out upon earth.

We sing out the Hope of Peace.

Risen Christ, you empower in us the Hope of Grace: Help us offer your welcome ... proclaim your assurance ... be your loveliness ... and do your goodness ... to and for everyone in this community; that our neighbors may find, in us, the presence of you.

We sing out the Hope of Grace.

Risen Christ, you offer us the Hope of Healing: Help us pray for all in need of health or healing ... recovery or repentance ... freedom or forgiveness ... mercy or miracle, including NN; those on our parish prayer list; and those whom we name, either silently or aloud (pause); that they know your restoring touch.

We sing out the Hope of Healing.

Risen Christ, you were raised to give us Hope of Eternal Life: Help all who have died make their way to your forever-embrace, including NN; those on our parish prayer list; and those whom we name, either silently or aloud (pause); that, with the Holy Spirit, they may help console us in our grief; and with you, await us at our death.

We sing out the Hope of Eternal Life.

Celebrant

O God, in the Easter of our Christ, you have filled, inspired and transported us: May the songs of Hope we sing this season help us, with Him, re-create this world in all the Hopes you hold for it. All this we pray through him, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be dominion and praise for ever and ever. Amen.

The Confession of Sin is omitted during Eastertide

The PEACE

Music At the Offertory This joyful Eastertide

Charles Wood (1866 – 1926)

This joyful Eastertide,
Away with sin and sorrow!
My Love, the Crucified,
Hath sprung to life this morrow.
Had Christ, that once was slain,
Ne'er burst his three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain:
But now hath Christ arisen.

My flesh in hope shall rest,
And for a season slumber:
Till trump from east to west
Shall wake the dead in number.
Had Christ, that once was slain,
Ne'er burst his three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain:
But now hath Christ arisen.

Death's flood hath lost his chill,
 Since Jesus cross'd the river:
 Lover of souls, from ill
 My passing soul deliver.
 Had Christ, that once was slain,
 Ne'er burst his three-day prison,
 Our faith had been in vain:
 But now hath Christ arisen.

Celebrant

We acclaim you, holy God, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Holy God, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, Jesus lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose Jesus gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for Christ who died and rose for us, you sent the Holy Spirit, your own first gift for those who believe, to complete your work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for Jesus to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Almighty God, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and descent among the dead, proclaiming Christ's resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting Christ's coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

All

*We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.*

Celebrant

God our Creator, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with the Blessed Virgin Mary, with matriarchs, patriarchs, prophets, apostles, martyrs and all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through Jesus Christ our Savior.

The MINISTRATION of COMMUNION

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the blessed Bread and Wine of Holy Communion at the Lord's Table. Hold out your hands for the Bread. Gluten-free Bread is available; simply inform the priest you desire it. If you wish to drink the Wine, consume the Bread when you receive it and drink from the chalice when it is presented to you. If you wish to have Bread dipped in the Wine, let the Bread remain in your hands; the chalice bearer will intinct it for you. If you wish to come forward to receive a blessing rather than the Bread and Wine, indicate that desire by crossing your arms over your chest. If it is difficult for you to come forward, inform an usher, and the Bread and Wine will be brought to you.

A Prayer Before Communion

The Book of Common Prayer

All are invited to pray this, silently, as they prepare to receive the Sacrament

Be present, be present, O Jesus, our great High Priest, as you were present with your disciples, and be known to us in the breaking of bread; who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

At the Communion Rise up, my love, my fair one

Healey Willan (1880 – 1968)

Rise up my love, my fair one, and come away.
For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
The flowers appear upon the earth.
The time of singing of birds is come.
Arise my love, my fair one, and come away.
